COURSE ASSIGNMENTS: Due dates

Phase 1 requirements must be completed prior to start of the lectures and turned in the first day of class.

Phase 2 requirements are fulfilled with appropriate class participation.

Phase 3 requirements are due two months after class.

LECTURE OUTLINE:

The classroom lectures will focus on the subjects identified earlier. Multimedia resources and the World-Wide Web will be used to enhance class lectures.

FORMAT OF TERM PAPER:

The term paper and annotated bibliography must conform to Kate L. Turabian, A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations, Sixth edition revised by John Grossman and Alice Bennett (Chicago: The University of Chicago Press, 1996). When citing lectures, use the following format: Harold D. Hunter, "Pentecostal Models of Ecumenism," (Cleveland: Church of God Theological Seminary, July, 2004).

The research should reflect the required reading, lectures whenever appropriate, the supplementary list of books, journals, multimedia, scholarly resources available on the World-Wide Web and other pertinent material.

The electronic paper may be submitted by email.

This paper should be eight to ten pages, double spaced. This is determined by where the text ends and does not count notes listed separately. The font of choice is Times New Roman sized at 12 point.

The paper should deal with any leading (1) person, (2) event, (3) issue or (4) organization that pertains to class lectures or the required reading. If in doubt about a chosen subject, please seek approval before the work is begun.

Anyone found to use a paper submitted in another class will be penalized accordingly. Also a close look will be given to any source taken from the World-Wide Web to confirm compliance with copyright laws.

High marks will be awarded those who have their sources interact and are able to interact with the chosen sources. Mature judgment should be demonstrated in determining the salient issues and thereby provide a coherent, critical treatment of those so designated.

THE ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY:

A brief summary must be provided on twenty-five entries including the required reading. The length is not to exceed twelve pages, double spaced. The bibliographic heading of each work must include the number of pages of the item.

Selections may come from any part of the bibliography, but must be drawn from the major headings in the syllabus.

THE TAKE HOME EXAM:

The exam will be comprehensive. All ten questions must be answered. The total number of typed pages is twelve, double spaced. Formal footnotes or endnotes are not allowed. Sources should be abbreviated and placed in parenthesis in the body of the text, like “(Robeck, 24)”. A formal bibliography must be included. The questions will require essay responses which reflect informed perceptions and utilize any data that would support the answers. Use multiple sources—at least three—but not a multitude of sources.
