Greetings Dear Friends:

Thank you for your interest in the IPHC Archives & Research Center. Our mission is to serve the church and her friends by making sure that the journey of the faithful be safeguarded yet available to interested parties.

The price list before you shows that remarkable progress has been made in locating many publications once thought lost. Now they are not only recovered but restored and many already digitized to facilitate their use for the wide range of requests that come our way.

We encourage you to stay up with developments, new products and related projects by visiting our web at arc.iphc.org This easy-to-navigate site intends to provide a current overview of the ministry of the IPHC Archives & Research Center.
